ARCHDUKE JOSEPH OF AUSTRIA DEAD

Man of the People, Soldier and Practical Philanthropist, He Was Loved by All—Tried to Reclaim Gypsies.

VIENNA, June 13.—Archduke Joseph of Austria died this morning. He was born in 1858.

Joseph Charles Louis, Archduke of Austria and Royal Prince of Hungary, was born at Freudenburg, Hungary, March 2, 1858. He had always been known as the "Hungarian Archduke," and was deeply loved by the Hungarian people.

Archduke Joseph was a son of the last but one Palatin of Hungary. He was educated in Hungary as a Hungarian, and in the Hungarian spirit. Contrary to the accepted regulations of Austrian court etiquette in the matter of the education of members of the royal family, Archduke Joseph's boyhood was passed with peasant boys as his playmates and companions. This system awakened in him an interest in and appreciation of the people which was evidenced all his life.

In 1894 Archduke Joseph entered his father's Hussar regiment and began his experience of active service. In 1896 his regiment returned home, where he remained for four years. In 1900, however, and until 1904, the regiment was in Italy, and the Archduke was present at several of the important battles of those troubled times.

He was at the battle of Koenigsgratz, in 1866, where the brave and determined fighting of the Austrian soldiers called forth the well-known praise of the Prussian General Steinmetz.

Returning from the wars, Joseph was made commander-in-chief of the Hungarian "Honved" when this reserve army was reorganized, and he held this post until his death. He did splendid work in developing and improving this body of troops.

The Archduke became interested also in the firemen's organizations of Hungary, and devoted much time to their reorganization and improvement. Joseph did much, or tried to do much, for the gypsies of Hungary. He mastered the gypsy language and wrote an excellent grammar of this most difficult tongue, to which he added the result of his researches into its origin. He tried to settle the question of gypsy vagabondage by offering to any gypsy who wanted to settle down a patch of land, a good home, and help in making a start as an agriculturist. All these efforts were in vain, but he won the love and always held the esteem of the gypsies.

NATH. ROTHSCHILD, BANKER, IS DEAD.

Brother of Head of Austrian Branch of Great Firm Succumbs to Long Illness.

VIENNA, June 12.—Baron Nathaniel de Rothschild, brother of the head of the Austrian branch of the firm, died this morning.

He had been seriously ill for a long time past.

TO REINSTATE CORKILL.

Court Rules that He Was Illegally Dismissed from Police Department.

A jury in Part II. of the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, Justice Dickey, decided today that Commissioner McCauley will have to reinstate John Corkill, who was removed from the position of complaint clerk at Mulberry Street Headquarters Feb. 1, 1904.

The decision upholds the contention of Corkill that the position is protected under civil service rules and that the Commissioner had no right to remove him without a trial on charges. Corkill, under his commission, is entitled to back pay from the date of his removal to his present position.

TAKES ACID AND BEGS ANTIDOTE

Quick Discovery of Milkman Saves the Life of Young Rosenberg.

For some reason which he refuses to give, Samuel Rosenberg, twenty-three years old, attempted suicide early today by drinking oxalic acid in his home, No. 923 East One Hundred and Sixty-third street. After swallowing the poison he aroused his mother in time for measures to be taken to save his life. He was removed to Leubanon Hospital, where it is believed that he will recover.

Rosenberg is a buyer for the Guaranty Clothing Company in Harlem. His mother said today that money or business matters were not troubling him.

About 4 o'clock this morning Mrs. Rosenberg was awakened by her son's screams after he had taken the acid and repented of it. He did not tell her what he had drunk, but begged her to get him milk.

His younger brother, Jacob, fortunately found a milkman and got a bottle of milk, which Rosenberg drank. Dr. Aronow, who came with an ambulance from Leubanon Hospital, said Rosenberg would recover, and that the milk had saved his life.

Mrs. Rosenberg declares that she knows of no reason why her son tried suicide, unless it was over some girl, and she doesn't know who the girl is.
